DOING REAL ESTATE A WORLD OF GOOD

Since its creation, iad has been a dazzling success and has established itself as the ideal business partner for life change.

iad is a true success story! Founded in 2008 in a garage in Seine-Port (France), iad is relentlessly pursuing its mission to be the most innovative network supporting individuals who wish to sell or buy a property in a different way.

Today, we are very proud to have made iad the key player that is doing real estate a world of good. Our unique model is experiencing significant growth and developing its full potential internationally.

What if tomorrow you were part of this global network of real estate agents? Today, our collaborative model offers thousands of people the opportunity to become their own boss. This very present notion of entrepreneurship is essential in the history of iad because it puts people at the heart of the model.
